Guest Lecture on Audit 4.0: Driving transparency and trust in the digital Era Date / Period:08-11-2025 Time: 10.00 am to 12.00 am. The Department of Commerce organised by the guest lecture on Audit 4.0: Driving transparency and trust in the digital Era. It highlighted the shift from traditional, retrospective auditing methods to real-time, continuous auditing facilitated by automation, AI, and data analytics. Key themes included the integration of cybersecurity assessments into audit processes, leveraging blockchain for enhanced data integrity and transparency, and embedding ethical data governance to meet evolving privacy requirements. The aim of the guest lecture on "Audit 4.0: Driving Transparency and Trust in the Digital Era" was to explore the transformative impact of advanced digital technologies—such as artificial intelligence, machine learning, blockchain, and real-time data analytics—on modern auditing practices, emphasizing how Audit 4.0 enhances transparency, strengthens trust, and enables continuous, proactive assurance in increasingly complex digital ecosystems. The recourse person, delivered the session, focusing on how emerging digital technologies are transforming traditional audit practices. The lecture highlighted critical aspects such as the integration of artificial intelligence, blockchain, and real-time analytics to drive transparency, strengthen trust, and enable continuous assurance in the digital era. Attendees learned about the need for ethical data governance, cybersecurity considerations, and the shift towards proactive, real-time risk management. The lecture emphasized how Audit 4.0 empowers auditors to analyze vast volumes of data instantaneously, detect anomalies proactively, and provide strategic insights that drive	CA Jacquelyne Taniya, Financial Analyst at Metayb Private Limited Chennai	III B.Com (CA), II B.Com A &amp; B I - B.Com B Students 95
