5. Event Summary:

The Tobacco-Free Youth Campaign Walkathon & Rally was successfully conducted in Thanjavur, bringing together enthusiastic student participants and NSS volunteers from the CSE department. The event aimed to raise awareness about the harmful effects of tobacco and promote a healthy, smoke-free lifestyle. Students and NSS volunteers carried banners, placards, and slogans emphasizing the dangers of tobacco use and the benefits of a tobacco-free life. Public awareness speeches were delivered at various points, encouraging community members to support anti-tobacco initiatives.

6.Event Outcome:

- ✓ Increased Awareness: The rally effectively educated the community about the harmful effects of tobacco.
- ✓ Youth Engagement: Students and NSS volunteers actively participated, demonstrating leadership in promoting social causes.
- ✓ Community Impact: Local residents and passersby were engaged, spreading the message beyond the participants.
- ✓ Policy Advocacy: The event reinforced the need for stronger tobacco control policies and youth participation in health campaigns.
- ✓ Social Responsibility: Inspired students to take a stand against tobacco use and influence their peers positively.
