Amended Clause for Reappearance from the Third Attempt onwards
(B.Arch. and B.Tech. Regulations 2024)

If a student fails in a theory / practical / theory integrated with practical course, the student shall do reappearance registration for that course in the subsequent semester and appear for the end semester examination.

From the third attempt onwards, in order to pass the course, the student shall fulfill either of the following criteria:

Option (i): Secure 50% marks or above by considering the sum of 40% of the marks obtained in continuous assessment and 60% of the marks obtained in the end semester examination, subject to satisfying the minimum passing requirement in the end semester examination as per the regulations.

OR

Option (ii): Secure 50% marks or above in the end semester examination alone, irrespective of the marks obtained in continuous assessment.

In case of Option (ii), although the student is deemed to have passed the course, the final mark shall be considered as the end semester examination mark alone, and the grade awarded shall be restricted to the minimum passing grade, regardless of the actual marks secured.
